To speak gratitude is courteous and pleasant,
to enact gratitude is generous and noble,
but to live gratitude is to touch heaven.

Three Environments for Spiritual Growth

In my last sermon series, The Church We Want to Be, I was exploring characteristics of the early church that reflect the kind of congregation we want to be at Palm West Community Church. One of those characteristics is a commitment to spiritual growth and maturity.

In Acts 5:42, we read, "Day after day, in the temple courts and from house to house, they never stopped teaching and proclaiming the good news that Jesus is the Messiah."

Notice that the early church emphasized teaching and discipleship in different environments. They gathered publicly in large groups, but they also met in homes where relationships could develop and people could grow together.

Based on this, I introduced a philosophy of discipleship that builds upon this biblical model. Using the illustration of a mountain, we have identified three important environments for spiritual growth here at PWCC.

INSPIRATION — Growing through larger events and gatherings.

There is something powerful about gathering with hundreds of other believers to worship, pray, and hear God's Word proclaimed. Our faith is strengthened as we worship together. We are challenged, encouraged, and inspired to follow Jesus more faithfully.

FOUNDATION — Growing through smaller and more personal gatherings.

While large gatherings inspire us, smaller gatherings provide opportunities for deeper learning and relationships. Bible studies, classes, and small groups allow us to ask questions, discuss Scripture, share experiences, and encourage one another. We move beyond simply hearing God's Word to understanding how to apply it to our lives.

FORMATION — Growing through intimate and private withdrawal.

Jesus frequently withdrew from the crowds and even His disciples, to spend time alone with His Father. In the same way, we need opportunities for solitude, prayer, reflection, and contemplation. It is often in these quieter, more intimate moments that we begin to discern what God is doing in our lives and experience genuine spiritual transformation.

These three environments are not competing approaches to discipleship. Nor are they a hierarchy of spirituality. Each provides something valuable that the others cannot fully accomplish.

As we move forward, Palm West Community Church will continue developing opportunities in all three environments through worship, expanded classes and small groups, formation groups, spiritual direction, and retreats.
But ultimately, spiritual growth requires more than the church providing opportunities. It requires each of us to take personal responsibility for our relationship with Jesus.
My encouragement is simple: Keep growing. Keep learning. Keep pursuing Jesus. Wherever you find yourself on the mountain, take another step toward becoming the person God created you to be.

Connecting to God through Generous Living

Would you describe yourself as a generous person? At times I do but sometimes I don't. One of the messages from the recent, "The Church We Want to Be" series was that we would have a "generous engagement". I admit it is easy for me to give an encouraging word or a financial gift to my family. One thing I like to do occasionally is to Zelle each of my kids a little money so they can treat their families to a meal from Mimi. What's fun for me is that it's not expected or anticipated, but it blesses them immensely. It's a small thing but the reward is great. But other times I hold tight to what I have and worry anxiously about "having enough". Can you relate? This holiday season, let us partner together to listen carefully to how the Lord is leading us and intentionally look for opportunities to be a blessing to others. One of my favorite verses is from Genesis where God tells Abraham that he has been blessed to be a blessing! (Genesis 12:2). Let's be a church that consistently makes giving a way of life, and at times go above and beyond when the Lord directs. We can not outgive God! He gave us His only Son , Jesus Christ, so that we too could have eternal life.(John 3:16) Freely we have received this gift and when we understand that everything we have is God's we are able to hold loosely to the things of this world. There is an older worship song called Freely, Freely and the chorus goes like this:

Freely freely you have received
Freely freely give
Go in my name and because you believe,
Others will know that I live.

Be a blessing this holiday season!

Caregiver Support Group

Beginning Monday, November 2 | 10:00–11:30 a.m. | Hoover Hall Classroom

Are you caring for a spouse, parent, family member, or loved one? You don't have to walk the caregiving journey alone.

We are pleased to introduce a new Peer-to-Peer Caregiver Support Group. This Christ-centered group will provide a welcoming place to share, pray, encourage one another, and learn practical caregiving resources.

Together, we will talk about the joys and challenges of caregiving, caregiver stress, dementia, grief, community re-sources, and the importance of caring for ourselves while caring for others.

"Bear one another's burdens and so fulfill the law of Christ." — Galatians 6:2

Come as you are and join us for fellowship, encouragement, and support.

Monday, November 2 | 10:00–11:30 a.m. Hoover Hall Classroom

Facilitated by Rocio Busby. For questions or more information: 661-301-3924

Finance Office

IRA-QCD Donations

The Internal Revenue Service provides a way for individuals to give through their individual retirement arrangement (IRA) who are the age of 70 ½ or over, to transfer up to $100,000 to eligible charitable organizations tax-free each year. These transfers are known as qualified charitable distributions or QCD's. They also count toward the IRA's owner required minimum distribution (RMD) for the year.

Normally, distributions from a traditional IRA are taxable when received. With a QCD, however, these distributions become tax-free as long as they are paid directly to the eligible charitable organization. In other words, they must be made by the trustee of the IRA directly from the IRA to an eligible charitable organization.

I have received several inquiries/requests about donations from IRA's that are qualified charitable distributions. If you are having regular donations sent as a QCD or if you make an annual donation that is a QCD, please email finance@palmwestchurch.org so that we can make notations as we enter your donation(s) from your IRA. Thank you, everyone, for your generous donations to further the kingdom of God through your offerings.

Creative Arts Fellowship

The Creative Arts Fellowship is a multi-talented group of fun ladies who meet year-round. We share a comfortable environment where we enjoy our hobbies and creative activities, as well as each other's company. WE LAUGH A LOT!

Bring your own craft, which might include: needle art, diamond art, knitting, crocheting, coloring (we have coloring supplies on hand), painted by numbers, and more!

We meet the 2nd and 4th Tuesdays of each month from 10:00 a.m.—11:30 a.m. in the Hoover Hall "classroom".

Our mornings begin with a Spirit-filled devotion and end with prayer. We are laid-back, friendly, and lively! We are creative, happy and blessed!

Come join our merry group!

"For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them."-Ephesians2:10

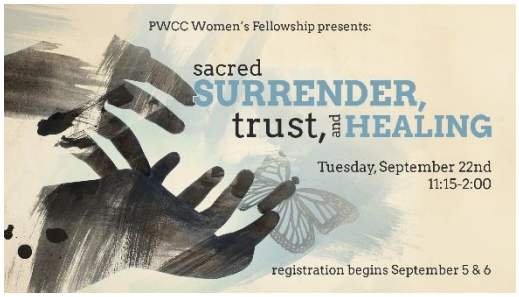
Women's Fellowship

Sharon Shepherd, Chair



SACRED SURRENDER, TRUST AND HEALING

On Tuesday, September 22, 2026 Women's Fellowship gathered to surrender burdens, be challenged in our thinking and understand the surrendered life is not lived by human strength but that we live by faith in the Son of God.

As many among us, carry a burden due to the loss of a loved one, guest speaker Christine Andrew spoke on the subject of "Renewal Following Loss". Christine explained that it is only Christ who uses the trials of loss to refine, restore and enable us to go from suffering to renewal. Through her personal experience of the loss of her husband, the Lord's hand has truly softened the wounds of sorrow and because of the gospel of Christ and His great love, she is now far better able to navigate the trail of widowhood. Christine has authored two books since the passing of her husband as well. There are copies now available in our PWCC library. They are "I'm A New Widow, What Do I Do Now?" and "Food Isn't What It Used To Be: A Biblical Approach to Health." Please check them out.

WF Leader, Sharon Shepherd, spoke on how healing, freedom, joy and peace, come when we make a conscious choice to surrender our burdens, trust that God loves us more than we can think or imagine, and allow Him to do the restorative work that only He can do. (Choosing to focus on those things that are pure, lovely and of good report.) Taking every negative thought captive and asking God to replace it with one that is true and pleasing to Him. Lastly, understanding how the power of the Holy Spirit and God's presence in our lives transforms the manner in which we address and respond to our circumstances (both past and present) as well as every one of our relationships.

The program then turned to release of any burdens brought into the room. Hearts were stirred as our women laid their burdens down at the foot of the cross and covered them with the blood of Jesus Christ. Pat Alexander led a beautiful depiction of the Lord's Supper. Everyone participated in Sacred Surrender by the taking of elements, united, as Sisters in Christ.

Women's Fellowship Program

Saturday, November 7, 2026, 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Doors open at 10:00 a.m.

Fall Brunch and Program

"Architecture of Faith, How God Constructs Our Lives"

Speaker, Andrea Powell

Come enjoy a Fall Brunch and hear our keynote speaker, Andrea Powell, address the question, "What do the doors, walls and foundations of our homes have to teach us about our walk with God?" What a wonderful opportunity to hear from Andrea as she shares scripture, her own personal stories and reflection. Together, we'll explore the doors God opens and closes, the walls he asks us to build or tear down and the foundation that holds us steady through every season of life.

Since this is the last Women's Fellowship Program of 2026, we will reflect on God's provision, blessing and favor as we recap the programs He has so richly blessed. It has been a true expression of gratitude to our Heavenly Father for a renewal of our faith, new relationships made and the Holy Spirit's presence that guided us every step of the way. There will be a time of testimonials, as well, as some of our PWCC women share how their hearts have been stirred over the course of this past year. All the glory to God, and to God alone.

How exciting it will be to look ahead to 2027 and what God has in store!! We will conclude our program with Peg Rideout sharing the vision for the new year and a special invitation to a January event already being planned.

You won't want to miss this! Sign-up the weekend of October 31, November 1, the cost will be $15.00.

Fellowship Games

Come and join us at Fellowship Games for a couple of hours of fun, finger snacks, and good fellowship.

We have a committed "Mexican Train" group and also welcome other games.

We will meet on Mondays, October 5 & 19 in the Hoover Hall Classroom, 2:00 p. m.— 4:30 p.m.

Quilt'n Sew

Wilma Plett

The Palm West Quilt'n Sew Team is meeting on November 6 for a wonderful time of fellowship.

We have a short devotional which is followed by a show and tell session where members may display and talk about their recent projects. We are open to anyone who would like to come and check out what we do. The meeting starts at 10:00 a.m. in Hoover Hall Classroom.

All our quilts and blankets are stitched together with prayers and we hope it serves as a reminder of God's love and grace. They are donated along with weighted animals to offer the feeling of a hug, physical warmth, comfort and emotional security. We are reminded of –

Thank you

How blessed we are to be a part of the PWCC family of God.

There is great comfort in knowing that so many believers take to heart and pray fervently as we submit our concerts for intercession. As our Son, Russ Koziol, recently went into the presence of the Lord, God's grace and presence has been most evident. Our family has experienced God's outpouring of thoughtful cards, messages and love through our amazing church family.

Missions

The Voice of the Martyrs

Phil Burdick, Liaison

Jesus said, "If the world hates you, keep in mind that it hated me first." (John 15:18). This fact is a reality for Christ followers throughout the world where persecution has increased greatly. Today the number is over 388,000,000 according to World Watch 2026. Amazingly, the areas where Christianity is growing most rapidly are also areas where new converts are likely to be persecuted! One of the examples is Iran where Christianity is growing rapidly but Christ followers must meet in secret and face imprisonment and being martyred. Another area of persecution takes place in China where over 200 house church pastors have been imprisoned. In all these countries including North Korea, Afghanistan, India and eastern Africa Christ followers must meet in secret and if found out they are imprisoned or killed.

Palm West Church supports Voice of the Martyrs (VOM) through our missions giving. Voice of the Martyrs is dedicated to assisting the needs of persecuted Christians by supplying food, clothing, medical supplies, housing assistance and Bibles. Most important is our prayers for persecuted Christians. Pray that our persecuted brothers and sisters in Christ will remain obedient to Christ and that God will meet their needs for food, housing, fellowship and Bibles. Pray these believers will be comforted when their family members and friends are killed for following Jesus Christ.

Therefore, as we enter the month of November, let us remember to pray for the persecuted church on Sunday, November 1, which is designated as the International Day of Prayer. This is a global prayer movement that can have a powerful impact.

Cadence International

Lois Doerksen, liaison

Submitted by Sherry Burdick

Cadence International is a ministry to United States military personnel stationed both in the U.S. and those deployed abroad. The ministry helps to support the spiritual needs of our military. Missionaries with Cadence offer encouragement through Bible studies, prayer, and fellowship events. All branches of the military are reached through this ministry. Luke Air Force Base is privileged to have a missionary couple living next to the base and they invite service members into their home regularly. Palm West has been a great encouragement to this ministry through our monthly financial support and prayers.

The goal of the missionary is to share the good news of the gospel with personnel and lead them to accept Christ as Savior. Many have found peace during the stresses of military life that only Jesus can give. Those who are already Christians are encouraged to share their faith with their fellow servicemen. They learn that Jesus is able to calm the strife they are going through, especially as they face the possibility of deployment. With the crisis in the Middle East, we pray especially for those in danger and for their safe return home to family.

Ministry Opportunity

"Emailing Letters and Prayers of Encouragement to Inmates"

Alongside Ministries (ASM) presented at our Fellowship Dinner in October. Amazing testimonies of God's miraculous and transformational love were shared by former inmates. ASM desperately needs more volunteers in their "Barnabas Ministry", a program to pray for, encourage and disciple inmates by regular email correspondence (through a secure site).

If you are home and have a computer and are interested in being used by the Lord in a tangible way, this is an excellent opportunity for you. Mike Kapic, a Palm West member and a volunteer with the "Barnabas Ministry" would be happy to talk to you about the expectations.

Hope Bags

Gary & Carol Graf

A heartfelt thank you to the more than 50 people that came out to help prepare the 1170 Bibles that will be put in the Hope Bags in March. It was a very fun and happy group.

Hope Bags team would like to thank everyone who contributed to the WATER FUND this summer. We were able to donate $1,369.00 to purchase water and several of you brought in a total of 62 cases of water that we delivered to the Phoenix Rescue Mission and Where Hope Lives. It was much appreciated by our neighbors in need.

Our next Hope Bag meeting is Friday, December 11th at 9:00 am in Hoover Hall. We will be preparing more items for the Hope Bags and cording the more than 1500 Hope Bags. Hope you can join us!

HELP THROUGH DONATIONS

Have clothing, furniture or household goods you would like to donate? Call Gary Graf 206-369-8659 He can pick up any large items. Any small items can be dropped off in Hoover Hall in the Hope Bags bin near the Food Bank donation area.
